

National Interfaith Forum 28 February 2011 - draft programme

	Activity
8.00am	Registrations open
8.30 -8.35am	Welcome and karakia
8.35 - 8.45am	Setting the scene - outline Wellington's activities and what we hope to achieve from the forum
8.45 - 9.00am	Opening speech/welcome
9.00- 9.30am	Brief presentation by Rachael and Freeman
9.30 - 9.45am	Presentation from the Youth Forum
9.45 - 10.00am	Presentation from the Women Forum
10.00 - 10.30am	Morning tea break
10.30 - 11.45am	Concurrent workshops <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • National Interfaith structure - what form and shape? • Where do women feature in the interfaith leadership discussion? • Religious inclusion OR exclusion - who decides whether my faith is 'in' or 'out'? • Are we achieving Millennium Goals - do they matter and why? • Interfaith elephants - things we don't talk about with each-other
11.45- 12.15pm	Feedback from the workshop facilitators and Q & A
12.15 - 1.15pm	Lunch break
1.15pm - 2.00pm	Panel discussion - How can interfaith dialogue contribute to Human Rights education - sharing examples and suggestions
2.00 - 3.00pm	Small group discussion on identifying the key issues to consider for the following areas - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - community groups - education sector - employment sector - family and social life - religious organisation
3.00 - 3.20pm	Feedback from group discussions
3.20 - 3.45pm	Afternoon tea
4.00 -4.30pm	Feedback from the regions - highlighting key activities/achievements/plans for 2011-12
4.30 -4.45pm	Where to from here?
4.45pm	Closing remarks